Mr. Keswick (says the English man) has long been a worthy representative of the commercial community of Calcutta-a representative of whom any community might bejustly proud—and the powerful attitude he assumed during a recent period of political " storm and stress" may be rightly regarded as having placed the European residents in India under a lasting debt of gratitude.

THE ENGLISH MAIL.

The P. & O. steamer Clyde, with the English mail of the 22nd ultimo, arrived here yesterday evening. The following telegrams are from Coylon and Indian papers:-THE LONDON RIOTS:

LONDON, 8th February. An enormous mass meeting of the unemployed was held in Trafalgar S. Lare this evening, when resolutions were adopted appealing to Government and Parliament to make efforts to relieve the distress among the working classes. Many Socialist deputies were present and made passionata speeches which so worked upon their hearers that a scene of the greatest excitement followed. The mob from Trafalgar Square proceeded along Pall Mall, Piccadilly, and Oxford Street, which they paraded up and down and 1886 took possession of, creating the wildest alarm. The windows of the Clubs were smashed, shops were pillaged, and carriages and passers-by stopped and robbed. The police were not strong enough to cope with the rioters, and heavy re- | inforcements were sent for, which succeeded in restoring order. Numerous arrests of ringleaders were made. LONDON, 9th February.

The rioters last evening were led by Socialists. The damage done to property was immense. LONDON, 10th February. Crowds of roughs again assembled in Trafal gar Square last evening, but were easily dispersed by the police. The jewellers in the principal West End streets, fearing another riot, closed their shops yesterday. The press, discussing per Dozen. On Card Board 20 Cents each.
